Rome, May 24. N. S.

THE Pope, who has been indiſpoſed, is very well again, and has given this week the uſual Audiences to the Foreign Miniſters. The Envoy of Poland now here having Orders to notifie the King his Maſter's Acceſſion to the Crown, to the ſeveral Courts of Italy, intends to go hence in few days to perform that Commiſſion. The Book publiſhed ſome time ago by the Archbiſhop of Cambray, having been ſent to the Pope by the Court of France, where the ſaid Archbiſhop is charged with favouring the Quietiſts, a Congregation of Cardinals was appointed to Examine the ſaid Book, who have met ſeveral times, and are much divided in their Opinions concerning it. Orders have been given to the Pope's Galleys that are to join the Venetian Fleet this Summer, to put to Sea with all poſſible expedition. We hear from Naples, that the Duke of Medina Celi is continued Vice-Roy of that Kingdom for 3 years longer. The Prince of Belvedera has lately taken Orders, which has occaſioned a Report, that the Pope has promiſed him a Cap.

Leghorne, May 26. This week the Jannes laden with Fiſh, and the Iſabella laden with Hides, came into this Port, both from Ireland; as alſo the Reſolution, Capt. Croncker Commander, from Lisbon; and the Ruth, Capt. Archer, with Bale Goods. The Thomas and Ann, Capt. Gibbs Commander, is ready to ſail for London. We have Advice by ſome Barks from Algiers, that the Plague is broken out in thoſe parts.

Milan, May 28. The Prince of Vaudemont, our Governor, arrived here laſt Saturday; He was met at Tortona, a Place on the Frontiers of this State, by the Marquis of Leganez, and at Pavia by the Deputies from our City and Senate, and from the other Cities of this Dutchy, and ſince his arrival he has received the Viſits and Compliments of Cardinal Caccia, the Foreign Miniſters, and all the Perſons of Quality that are in Town.

Warſaw, May 30. The Emperor having communicated to this Court the Propoſals made by the Turks for ſetting on foot a Treaty of Peace, and deſired the King would ſend Ambaſſadors to Vienna with the neceſſary Powers to this effect, the Senate here have been aſſembled to conſider thereof, but have yet taken any Reſolution in this Matter. The Queen Dowager has acquainted the King, that ſhe lies under an Obligation to go to Rome, to perform a Vow ſhe lately made, and deſires ſhe may have Leave to depart out of this Kingdom accordingly, which has been likewiſe conſidered by the Senate, but nothing yet reſolved. The Primate ſeems ſtill unwilling to take the Oath of Fidelity to the King before the meeting of the General Dyet, but would be allowed in the mean time to ſit and Vote in the Senate; This the King and the reſt of the Senators will not conſent to, and the Cardinal finding he cannot gain this Point, will in all probability yield it. The Differences and Animoſities in Lithuania are much increaſed ſince the Aſſault made on the Deputies from the Diſcontented Nobility, in their Journey hither; and a Party of Prince Sapieha's Men have lately plundered the Suburbs of the City of Wilda, becauſe of their adhering to the Intereſts of the Sieur Oginsky; At the ſame time the Army in Lithuania take part with their General Prince Sapieha, and have ſent Deputies to Court to make Complaints againſt the Sieur Oginsky, as well as to ſollicite the payment of their Arrears; Which has been already granted to the Forces of Poland, to enable them to take the Field this Summer againſt the Turks. The late Troubles in this Kingdom have much hindred the Preparations for the next Campagne, eſpecially the providing the neceſſary Magazines, the want whereof may prove a great obſtacle to the deſign of Beſieging Caminiec; However the King's Forces continue their march towards Ruſſland; and thoſe which came from Pruſſia are arrived in the Neighbourhood of this place, where they will ſtay a few days to refreſh themſelves. The Letters from Lemberg of the 14th ſay, the Tartars have lately ſupplied Caminiec with Proviſions, and afterwards made an Incurſion into the Territories of this Kingdom, but had not time to commit the Spoil they intended, being allarmed by the notice they had of the march of ſome of our Forces, and retiring thereupon in great haſte and diſorder.

Vienna, May 31. The Imperial Court continues at Luxembourg, where the Prince of Lorrain Biſhop of Oſnabrug, lately received from the Emperor the Inveſtiture of the Fiefs belonging to that Biſhoprick. Don Pathieco de Souſa, Envoy of Portugal, has had his Audience of Leave of their Imperial Majeſties, and intends to go hence the next week. An Expreſs is arrived here from Poland with an account, that all Matters are accommodated with the Cardinal Primate and the Gentlemen of his Party, which puts the King of Poland very much at eaſe, and will enable him to purſue with greater vigor the War againſt the Turks. A great Train of heavy Cannon is preparing here in order to be forthwith ſent to Peter-Waradin. Several Recruits and other Forces paſs daily by this place in their way to Hungary, and Orders are given for providing the Magazines there with all things neceſſary for the Subſiſtence of the Army. Our Letters from Peter-Waradin ſay, ome Turkiſh Horſe are come to Niſſa, and that their Foot are gathering about Belgrade; and that on Advice that the Turks of Belgrade come frequently in their Saicks towards Titul to allarm the Country, the Baron of Nehem who commands at Peter-Waradin, had ſent 3 Barks with Soldiers along the Danube to obſerve them. We have an account from Tranſilvania, that the Turks continue with great diligence to repair the Fortifications of Vypalanka, and to build others along the Save, by which they intend to cover Belgrade;
